BIOGRAPHY

The Tazers have their roots stuck in the '70s while incorporating modern sounds and structures. This Johannesburg trio packs a high-energy live performance that captivates audiences with fuzz tones, three-part vocal harmonies and powerful drum rolls.

Active since 2015, the band have released 3 full-length albums and 5 EPs, becoming one of South Africa's definitive psych-rock acts and playing every major festival the country has to offer — including Oppikoppi and Rocking the Daisies.

They're an international band too — touring Europe four times across Germany, Switzerland, Austria, Belgium, France, the Netherlands and Italy, including a performance on the legendary WDR Rockpalast broadcast at Crossroads Festival, Bonn. European radio play on FM4 (Austria) and Radio Fritz (Germany); 'Ready To Die' aired on MTV Germany.
